

General Conditions

General conditions for SCHIPPERS UK Ltd. Hereinafter called the "SUPPLIER", a limited liability established in Peterborough, Registered in England No: 6456888

Index

Article 1 - Applicability

Article 2 - Offers and Agreements

Article 3 - Prices/Selling Prices

Article 4 - Delivery/Delivery Time

Article 5 - Force Majeure

Article 6 - Transfer of Property

Article 7 - Cancellation/Termination of an Agreement

Article 8 -Transport-risk/Risk-transition

Article 9 - Claims

Article 10 - Responsibility and Guarantee

Article 11 - Returns

Article 12 - Payment

Article 13 - Assignments

Article 14 - Applicable law and Disputes

Article 1. Applicability

1.1 These conditions are applicable to all offers, agreements and conferred orders.

1.2 In these conditions the term "CLIENT" means every body and/or person that has or wishes to conclude an agreement with the SUPPLIER including their representative(s), shop assistants, authorised person(s), assigned person(s) and heir(s).

1.3 In these conditions the term "CONSUMER" means any person that does not act on behalf of a profession or company, or a buyer, that acts as a consumer and has concluded an agreement with the SUPPLIER. All conditions contained herein shall also apply to the CONSUMER unless explicitly agreed.

1.4 Supplements and/or deviations of these conditions are valid only if agreed to in writing by the SUPPLIER to the CLIENT.

1.5 If the SUPPLIER agrees to a deviation to these conditions with a CLIENT in an agreement, then the CLIENT shall not refer to this deviation in subsequent agreements. Deviations to these conditions should be agreed upon explicitly.

1.6 A reference by the CLIENT to its own general conditions will be emphatically rejected by the SUPPLIER.

Article 2. Offers and Agreements

2.1 All offers by the SUPPLIER, either in the form of price lists or otherwise, including verbal offers and other statements of representatives and/or employees of SUPPLIER, are not binding and are made subject to confirmation in accordance with the next sub-clause.

2.2 An agreement is brought about only when confirmed in writing within 8 days after ordering or if the execution of the order has already commenced within 8 days.

2.3 If the delivery consists of several parts then the agreement as a whole shall be effective from whenever the first part delivery takes place.

2.4 Subsequent agreements, promises and/or alterations to the agreement made by and/or on behalf of the SUPPLIER's employees to the CLIENT are only binding if confirmed in writing by the SUPPLIER within 8 days, or when the SUPPLIER completely or partially carries the order in to effect within 8 days.

2.5 Every agreement is concluded subject to the condition that, in the exclusive opinion of the SUPPLIER, the CLIENT's creditworthiness is satisfactory for the monetary fulfilment of the agreement.

2.6 The SUPPLIER is authorized at or after conclusion of the agreement, but before further deliveries are made, to ask the CLIENT to provide a guarantee that all payments and other obligations will be met.

2.7 The SUPPLIER is authorized, whenever it considers it desirable or necessary for the proper execution of an order, to acquire the assistance of others, the costs of which will be passed on in accordance with the relevant quotation(s). If possible and/or necessary the SUPPLIER will consult the CLIENT in this regard. If the CLIENT is the CONSUMER then the costs will be stated beforehand.

2.8 The SUPPLIER is authorized to demand cash on delivery.

3. Prices/Selling Prices

3.1 All prices are ex-works exclusive of VAT, unless otherwise agreed explicitly in writing.

3.2 Exclusions are:

- special import duties and or other taxes;
- special packaging material and/or packing;
- costs for loading and unloading, transport and insurance.

3.3 Prices are based on costs prevailing at the time of offer. If these costs rise after the offer date as a result of, for example, increases in the prices of raw materials, accessory materials, parts, transport costs, wages, insurance premiums, fiscal loads, import duties, rates of exchange, then the SUPPLIER is authorised to pass on this rise in the prices.

3.4 The terms of the former sub-clause are also valid, if these cost rising factors were foreseeable at the time the agreement was concluded.

3.5 Where a price rise is more than 15% above the price agreed, the CLIENT has the right to summarily terminate the agreement without judicial intervention by means of a registered letter, in which case he will be obliged to compensate the SUPPLIER for that part of the order which has already been met, and for which these conditions shall remain in force.

3.6 If the CLIENT is a CONSUMER then he is authorized to cancel an order if a price rise occurs in accordance with sub-clause 3.3, unless the price rise occurs only after 3 months after the conclusion of the agreement, then sub-clause 3.5 is correspondingly applicable.

3.7 The CLIENT is obliged to abide by the minimum selling prices established by the SUPPLIER unless specifically agreed in writing by the SUPPLIER to the CLIENT.

3.8 If the CLIENT contravenes the conditions of the previous sub-clause, the SUPPLIER is authorized to cancel all outstanding delivery agreements without judicial intervention and to consider the agreement cancelled in accordance with sub-clause 7.1.b, notwithstanding the conditions of clause 7.

3.9 All accounts of either SUPPLIER or CLIENT are also immediately claimable.

4. Delivery/Delivery Time

4.1 All delivery dates are given in good faith and are not legally binding. Where a delivery is not made in accordance with the dates so given in good faith, the SUPPLIER shall be granted an extension of time for delivery.

4.2 The CLIENT is obliged to examine all consignments for possible packing shortages immediately upon delivery or to exercise this control when the SUPPLIER advises the CLIENT that the goods are at the CLIENT's disposal.

4.3 The CLIENT must note all such packing shortages on the delivery note, invoice and/or transport documentation at the time of delivery. Failure to do so will invalidate any such claims which will not be dealt with. The administration of the SUPPLIER shall be binding in these cases.

4.4 Small deviations in quality, quantity, colours, finish, size and weight which are considered by the SUPPLIER to be technically unavoidable or desirable do not give the CLIENT the right to refuse any delivery.

4.5 The SUPPLIER is authorized to deliver in parts (partial deliveries), which can be invoiced separately by the SUPPLIER. The CLIENT is then obliged to pay for these deliveries in accordance with the conditions as stated in clause 12.

4.6 The obligations of the SUPPLIER shall be fulfilled when the SUPPLIER has presented the goods to the CLIENT once. The receipt signed by the CLIENT or its representative, shall be regarded as full proof of delivery.

4.7 Where the goods are not accepted, transport costs and all associated cost increases will be for the account of the CLIENT. After a period of four weeks the SUPPLIER is authorized to sell these goods (by private contact). The possible decreased revenue and associated costs will be for the account of the CLIENT. The right of the SUPPLIER to also make a claim in accordance with the conditions of sub-clause 7.3 shall be undiminished.

5. Force Majeure

5.1 In the case of force majeure, which shall include: strike, fire, water damage, government rules, delay during shipping or transport, export prohibitions, war, mobilisation, import and export hindrances and all other situations which may hinder meeting the agreement temporarily or not, the SUPPLIER will be authorised, at its sole discretion, either to extend the delivery time for the duration of this hindrance, or to cancel the sale, as far as this is affected by the hindrance. The CLIENT is authorised to ask the SUPPLIER to declare a preference in writing and SUPPLIER should respond to this within 8 days.

5.2 If the hindrances last no longer than one month, then the SUPPLIER is not authorized to cancel. If the hindrances last longer than one month, then the CLIENT has the right to cancel the agreement, provided always that such cancellation is sent by registered letter and is received by the SUPPLIER before the order is delivered.

5.3 SUPPLIER is authorized to claim payment for the performance of any of its obligations that were made in relation to the execution of the relevant agreements, before force majeure became evident.

6. Transfer of Property

6.1 The delivered goods shall remain the property of the SUPPLIER until such time as the CLIENT has fulfilled all payment obligations.

6.2 The CLIENT is not authorized to transfer the delivered goods to a third party in pledge or property, or to hand over the goods for use by a third party (unless in accordance with its business duties).

6.3 In the case of resale by the CLIENT of not (yet) or partly paid for goods, the CLIENT shall transfer the right to receive payment from its customer to SUPPLIER. Every transfer will be considered as a (partial) payment.

6.4 The CLIENT is obliged immediately upon request to provide information concerning the third party buyer, making it possible for SUPPLIER to claim the debt directly from the aforesaid third party buyer. The amount paid by the third party buyer to the SUPPLIER will be deducted from the total debt due from the CLIENT to the SUPPLIER.

6.5 The CLIENT is obliged to impose the same property rights as contained in this clause on to its buyer.

6.6 If the CLIENT fails to fulfil any of its obligations to the SUPPLIER in the event of any circumstance referred to in sub-clause 7.1 of these conditions, the SUPPLIER is authorised to recover the delivered goods without notice, default or judicial intervention.

6.7 If the SUPPLIER recovers the delivered goods then the agreement is dissolved in accordance with sub-clause 7.1 of these conditions.

6.8 The CLIENT is obliged to inform the SUPPLIER directly if the goods delivered by the SUPPLIER become subject to an administration order, in as much that the aforesaid goods are not (yet) the property of the CLIENT, and also when any circumstance referred to in sub-clause 7.1 of these conditions arises.

7. Cancellation/Termination of an Agreement

7.1 The SUPPLIER reserves the exclusive right to cancel the agreement immediately without judicial intervention if the CLIENT:

- is adjudged to be bankrupt, requests a delay of payment, or is put into receivership or goes into liquidation;
- does not pay invoices (on time), or otherwise does not, not properly or not on time meet any obligation from the agreement.

7.2 On termination, all claims on the CLIENT are immediately payable and the SUPPLIER is also authorized to claim compensation for total damages, lost profit and/or lost interest.

7.3 "Lost profits" will amount, except for counter-proof by the SUPPLIER, to at least 25% of the agreed price, and "lost interest" will be up to the prevailing judicial interest rate.

8. Transport-risk/Risk-transition

8.1 All risk of transport of goods to be delivered or goods delivered rests with the CLIENT from the moment the goods leave the warehouse of the SUPPLIER. Such risk concerning direct or indirect damage also rests with the CLIENT regardless of any claim by the CLIENT of the existence of any clause on any consignment note or other such documents that all transport damages are for the account of the sender.

8.2 If the CLIENT is the CONSUMER and it is agreed that the goods will be delivered to the CONSUMER's home, then the risk transits at actual delivery.

8.3 If no other instructions are given by the CLIENT, the mode of transport, despatch, packing for example will be determined by the SUPPLIER. Specific instructions by the CLIENT in relation to transport/despatch will be executed only if the CLIENT agrees to bear the total costs.

9. Claims

9.1 Claims/complaints about the delivered goods should be made to the SUPPLIER within 8 days of receipt of goods by the CLIENT.

9.2 Claims about invoices must be received by the SUPPLIER within 5 days of the despatch date.

9.3 After this time has expired, the CLIENT will be regarded as having approved the delivered goods and the invoice, and claims will not then be dealt with by SUPPLIER.

9.4 No claim will ever release the CLIENT from its payment obligations and the full terms as set out in clause 12 of these conditions will remain in force.

9.5 Under the terms of these conditions every partial delivery shall be considered to be a separate delivery.

9.6 The CLIENT is not authorized to return any goods which are subject to a claim without the written permission of the SUPPLIER.

10. Responsibility and Guarantee

10.1 The guarantee on the delivered goods is completely conformable and restricted to the guarantee provided by the manufacturer of the relevant goods.

10.2 Guarantee does not apply to damage caused by bursts.

10.3 If the damage is caused to persons or other matter by goods as a result of a perceived design, material or production fault for which the SUPPLIER is responsible, this responsibility shall be restricted to the invoice value. This restriction shall not apply if the damage is due to intent or obvious guilt of the SUPPLIER or one or more of the SUPPLIER's subordinates.

10.4 The SUPPLIER shall not be responsible for damage to delivered goods if it appears that the CLIENT or user/consumer:

- did not adhere to the directions for use
- adds other products to the product which negates the desired action of SUPPLIER's product
- is allergic to SUPPLIER's product, or shows an allergic reaction
- did not store the product as instructed, or used the product for purposes other than those for which it was intended
- swallowed a non-consumable product.

10.5 Except for the terms of clause 1 of these conditions, the SUPPLIER shall not be responsible for the choice of product ordered by and delivered to the CLIENT unless the CLIENT made its intentions clear to the SUPPLIER in advance and where the SUPPLIER consequently provided all necessary information and did not make any subsequent alterations.

10.6 If the CLIENT is a CONSUMER then the responsibility for the goods shall be determined in accordance with judicial rules.

11. Returns

11.1 Returns are not permitted unless with the prior agreement of the SUPPLIER. If goods are returned without such agreement, then all costs of such returns shall be for the account of the CLIENT. In this latter case, the SUPPLIER shall be free to store the goods on the account of and at the risk of the CLIENT (by a third party) or even to do with such returns as the SUPPLIER, at its sole discretion, deems appropriate.

11.2 Returns, which are not accepted do not relieve the CLIENT in any way from its payment obligations.

11.3 An itemised statement by the SUPPLIER in regard to the real cost of or in connection to such returns and to measures taken pursuant thereto shall be binding on the CLIENT barring counter-proof.

11.4 The transport costs of such returns shall be for the account of CLIENT except where they are as a result of a fault by the SUPPLIER.

11.5 Returns shall always travel at the risk of the CLIENT.

12. Payment

12.1 Payment shall be net, cash on delivery or by means of deposit or remittance to the bank account assigned by the SUPPLIER within 8 working days after delivery or invoice date. The currency date as mentioned on the copy of the bank account of SUPPLIER is valid as the payment date.

12.2 If the invoice amount has not been received from the CLIENT within 8 working days, then the interest on this amount is due to SUPPLIER in accordance with the judicial interest rate at a minimum of 1.5 % per month valid for the whole period during which such payment is overdue whereby such time is calculated in complete months from the date on which the payment was due from the CLIENT.

12.3 If payment of an invoice is not received within 8 working days after the invoice date and when judicial measures have then been taken against CLIENT leading to the recovery of the debt, then the CLIENT is required to pay the judicial collection charges incurred by the SUPPLIER, which are to be determined at a minimum of 15% of the invoice amount to be paid or part thereof, such with a minimum of £ 113,45, notwithstanding possible process costs that may be claimable by the CLIENT by virtue of a judicial verdict.

12.4 Payments made by or on behalf of the CLIENT will firstly offset settlement costs and interest, and will only then offset the oldest unpaid accounts, regardless of whether the CLIENT indicates that the payment is applicable for a more recent invoice.

12.5 If the CLIENT fails to pay for a partial delivery, the SUPPLIER may, at its sole discretion, either postpone delivery of all outstanding orders for the period during which the CLIENT leaves a claimable (partial) invoice unpaid or, at notice of default, permanently cancel all outstanding orders and demand immediate payment for all goods delivered and claimable up to that time, notwithstanding the SUPPLIER's right to indemnification in accordance with the terms of sub-clause 7.3 of these conditions which shall remain undiminished at all times.

13. Assignments

13.1 The CLIENT is not allowed to assign any rights and/or obligations arising from the agreement as concluded with the SUPPLIER.

13.2 Assignment of rights and/or obligations is only possible if the CLIENT has informed the SUPPLIER of its intention to do so and has received explicit written permission from the SUPPLIER

14. Applicable law and Disputes

14.1 English law is applicable to agreements concluded with the SUPPLIER.

14.2 The latest version of the "Incoterms" as composed by the International Chamber of Commerce in Paris (I.C.C.) apply.